Indeed, one may travel very many miles in Europe without being half so well pleased as in crossing the summit of the South Mountain and running along the valley to Pine Col. Fuller, to whose untiring labors and enterprise the citizens of Adams county are so much indebted for the Park attractive in every manner possible. At the Park station there is a large green plot on which lovers of athletic sports can exercise themselves at base oall or other games. Near by runs Mountain Creek, with a small lake for plan frees, has several fountains of mirest water. Lunch tables and seats are found everywhere; and there is a large range to supply hot coffee for basket lluners. The restaurant is ready to furaish a good meal at 50 cts. Among the chief places of amusemen nention may be made of the large dancing pavilion, and a fine long bowling alley. The children are supplied with safe and strong swings. Flying horses, ele plaints, stags, reindeer and sleighs are at their disposal-all free of charge. Many rustic buildings afford shelter in case of rain. In a word, everything that renders a pic-nic ground attractive is to be found there. new railroad brought an extra force of hands, who, in two hours, laid about three hundred feet of new track on Railroad street, east of Washington,

This morning the Hanover company put a large force to work moving their track into the centre of the street from Carliste street west, thus obstructing any further advance by the new company. All which may mean that Railroad street is to become a bone of considerable contention between the two companies. The demands of trade, howover, will settle all such matters. The street is ample for the business of both.
